

Parks lower the air temperature of the but by how much depends on their size as twelve parks of one city measured twice with readings taken at the same hours in	streets around them their trees and the wind a day for a year show the streets nearby
---	--